

Day 1:

- Acropolis & Parthenon: Start early to visit the heart of ancient Athens. The Acropolis Museum is nearby, offering stunning views and deep insights into the ruins.
- Temple of Athena Nike & Erechtheion: Right next to the Parthenon, these monuments provide a mix of beauty and history.
- Plaka: Wander through the charming Plaka neighborhood, full of narrow streets, vibrant cafés, and small boutiques. This area is very safe and aesthetically pleasing.
- Anafiotika: Walk up to this hidden gem located just above Plaka. It's a small, Cycladic-style neighborhood that feels like a peaceful island getaway.
- Syntagma Square & Parliament: Witness the Changing of the Guard at the Hellenic Parliament. It's an iconic experience and a good spot to relax in the evening.
- Sunset at Lycabettus Hill: Take a funicular or hike up to the top for stunning views over the city, especially at sunset.

Day 2:

- National Archaeological Museum: Start with one of the world's most important museums. You'll find a rich collection of ancient Greek art and sculptures.
- Stroll around Exarchia: This bohemian neighborhood offers an eclectic vibe, with street art, trendy cafés, and cool galleries.
- Benaki Museum: A beautiful museum showcasing Greek culture through art, history, and design.
- Kolonaki: Visit this upscale district with chic cafés, art galleries, and high-end shopping. It's a great spot to stop for a leisurely lunch.
- Gazi District: Known for its lively nightlife, this district has a trendy atmosphere, full of bars, restaurants, and aesthetic spots. The old gasworks area has been transformed into a cultural space.

Day 3:

- Vouliagmeni Beach: Head to Vouliagmeni, a beautiful, safe beach just 30-40 minutes outside the city center. It offers crystal-clear waters and a scenic view.
- Spend a relaxing morning here, enjoying the sun and sea. The beach also has cafes where you can enjoy a coffee or a light meal while admiring the sea.
- Lake Vouliagmeni: Just a short walk from the beach, this natural lake is famous for its thermal waters. It's a tranquil place for a swim, offering a different experience from the ocean.
- Lunch by the Sea: Enjoy fresh seafood at a seaside taverna in Vouliagmeni, like Mikrolimano or Sardelaki. These spots are known for their local dishes.
- Return to Athens for a Sunset at the Temple of Poseidon: If you have time, you could drive out to the Temple of Poseidon in Sounion for a breathtaking sunset. The view of the temple with the sea behind it is perfect for photos.

Tips:

- Safety: Athens is generally very safe, especially in central areas like Plaka, Kolonaki, and around the Acropolis. Stick to well-lit areas at night and avoid empty, quiet streets.
- Public transport: Athens' metro system is convenient and safe. The tram also connects the city to the coast.
- Weather: February can be a bit chilly, so pack layers. Always check the forecast before heading to the beach, as it can get windy.
